

Support your passion. Make an impact. Commit to Georgia.

- PROVIDE ESSENTIAL LEGAL LEARNING EXPERIENCES
- EMPOWER THOSE WHO HAVE OVERCOME HARDSHIPS
- ASSIST FIRST-GENERATION STUDENTS OR MILITARY VETERANS
- SUPPORT THOSE WHO WANT TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Scholarships remain the top fundraising priority for the University of Georgia School of Law, as financial support, debt load and return on investment drive many applicants' final decisions.

However you want to make a life-changing impact on someone's life through a legal education, the law school's advancement team can guide you through the process. Some recent examples include:

Tom Harrold (J.D.'69) has established the International Law Student Development Endowment to support unique learning experiences and scholarships for students with a demonstrated interest in international law.

Michael N. and Risë J. Weathersby, both 1984 School of Law graduates, continue to contribute to their endowed scholarship for first-generation college graduates or those who have served as enlisted members of the armed forces.

The Kathelen Van Blarcum Amos '82 Law School Scholarship supports students seeking to make a difference in our society through a law degree.

The Jere W. Morehead Moot Court Fund – named in honor of the 1980 alumnus, former moot court program director and current president of UGA – provides funding for awards and scholarships related to the moot court program.

Janet Beerman has established a scholarship in memory of her husband, Bruce (J.D.'74). The Bruce and Janet Beerman Scholarship will support Georgia residents with the greatest likelihood of achieving Order of the Coif (or top 10 percent of the law school graduating class).

The James M. Cagle Scholarship Fund will benefit first-generation college graduates who have overcome significant disadvantages or hardships due to family poverty or as victims of personal or group prejudice. Cagle is a 1972 alumnus of the law school.
