

CLASS AGENT PROGRAM

As Class Agents, our alumni volunteers communicate personally with classmates to maintain a strong connection between the Law School and its graduates. Class Agents lend their assistance to the law school's fundraising efforts by writing letters, sending e-mails and making personal phone calls to their classmates encouraging unrestricted annual giving. Class Agents seek to raise the level of annual support for the Law School Fund in terms of both increased dollars and higher alumni participation rates.

WE WISH TO THANK OUR 2008-2009 CLASS AGENTS FOR THEIR HARD WORK AND FOR AN OUTSTANDING JOB.

Class Agents play a vital role in the Law School Fund campaign, boosting overall participation from their classmates. If you would like to be a class agent or learn more about the Class Agent Program, please contact Phyllis Cooke, Director of Annual Giving at 706.542.7637 or email cooke@uga.edu

Special thanks to the 55 members of the Classes of 1977 and 1978 Joint Reunion Host Committee for organizing an outstanding class reunion in Atlanta in February. The committee members provided financial and volunteer support for the event and arranged for additional sponsorships from Insurance Specialists, Inc. and Larry Mansfield and Peachtree Construction Company; afterwards they presented the School of Law with an additional gift of $7,500 to the Hirsch Hall Fund. We are grateful to them for creating a great opportunity for connection among their classmates and for their helpful contribution to the law school.

Graduates on Giving

CLASS AGENT

"The Georgia School of Law provides its students an outstanding education and deserves our strong support. For decades students at this law school have benefited from the generosity of those who "gave back" to the school in appreciation for the enrichment of their lives that resulted from their time here. As a beneficiary of that generosity, I feel a responsibility to do the same for the future leaders of our profession and take great pride in supporting the Law School Fund."

Keith Vaughan (J.D. '75)
