IRREVOCABLE PLANNED GIFTS

We are grateful to our alumni and friends who have chosen to participate in Georgia Law's future success through their irrevocable planned gifts. The stream of future support provided by planned gifts helps assure that Georgia Law will maintain its strength for generations to come.

Life Insurance

Life insurance policies naming the UGA Foundation or Arch Foundation as the owner and beneficiary are considered irrevocable planned gifts.

Life Income Gift Programs: Charitable Gift Annuity

A gift annuity is a simple contract with the donor and the University of Georgia Foundation or the Arch Foundation to pay you and/or your designated beneficiary a fixed income for life. At the end of the contract term, the remainder will be distributed to the Law School to be used for the purpose you designate.

Edith Teasley Baxter (deceased)
Kenneth M. Henson
Barry Phillips

Pooled Income Gifts

Pooled income gifts operate similarly to mutual funds, as your contribution is combined with those of other donors and income is paid to you or your designated beneficiary in proportion to your share.

Jesse G. Bowles, Jr. (deceased)
Hamilton Lokey (deceased)
