Please share specific comments below.	Highly recommend this class. Professor Meyer gives overviews at the beginning of each class that really help to clarify the material. The readings weren't too long, and he was pretty good at predicting where we would get to in a given class and adjusting the readings accordingly. You wouldn't end up being questioned on a reading that you did a week ago. The exam was very long (3.5 hours), but very fair. He did increase grades based off participation. He threatens to decrease grades for excessive absences or constantly being unprepared, but it may just be a threat. Overall a great class- Con Law can be very intimidating, but he did a great job of explaining the material.
