Please share specific comments below.	Professor is an actual immigration lawyer - he's really excited about the topic and at least at first that keeps you excited too. The subject matter is interesting, in general, but it's a lot of statutes which can be dry and difficult to understand. A few weeks into the semester the professor gets busy or bored and starts sending his associates to fill in for him - and for us he forgot to send the exam on time and we had to take a "take-home" exam in the library rather than taking an exam at the scheduled time. Aside from that, he keeps you entertained and interested for the full 2 hours.
