|--|--|
| Did this professor take attendance? | Yes |
| Exam Type | Fact Pattern |
| Grades in this class were based on: (select all that apply) | Take home exam |
| Grades were posted by the deadline. | TRUE |
| How intense was the socratic method? | Low (very light questioning, little intimidation, takes volunteers) |
| Please rate the Professor's success at conveying the material. | Not successful |
| Please rate the workload for this course. | Heavy- regular readings that are often long. Time-consuming outside assignments. |
| Please share specific comments below. | FALSE |
| The subject matter of this course was interesting. | Yes-Sometimes The professor was available to take questions but imposed restrictions. Although this professor was willing to answer questions, he/she did not invite interaction. |
| Was the Professor accessible after class? | No. I would not recommend this course at all. |
| Would you recommend this course to others? | Do not take this class unless you really really love sociology, and even then you probably shouldnt take it. You sit in class for hours, without a computer, and take notes. Its almost 100% lecture, which would be fine if you could have your computer to distract you from the boredom. Not only that, but the class is based on the professor and the professor's mentor's theory of sociology, no other theories. If you dont agree with his theory, then you'll go crazy listening to it. Grading is also pretty arbitrary. |
