1	I really like the subject material and like Professor Leonard very much as a person. I sometimes found it difficult to follow her lectures, however. She often asks many open ended questions (as a way to get you thinking about the material) but often does not loop back to provide clarity of what the "answer" is.	Mar 5, 2012 12:43 PM
2	Professor did not have control over in-class discussion. Each class turned into an argument amongst a handful of students espousing extreme political rhetoric. Anything that was on the exam was out of the book, which is fine, but it made going to class seem like a monumental waste of time.	Feb 20, 2012 1:31 PM
3	While I think this is a good course to take if you are interested in health law, it could be better organized.	Feb 15, 2012 4:42 PM
4	taught like a first year class, but very itneresting if curious about health care bills and changes to the health system	Feb 12, 2012 10:04 PM
5	A good class. Not the hardest or easiest; right in the middle	Feb 12, 2012 10:01 PM
6	Prof. Leonard is very knowledgeable about health law. On the other hand, I went into this class caring a lot about health law, and came out thinking that it was dull and impossibly complex. This could be her teaching, the reality of the material, or both. I do feel safe saying she is not the most exciting or charismatic professor I have had.	Feb 6, 2012 9:23 AM
