1	Great class if you are interested in the subject matter.	Feb 27, 2012 7:41 PM
2	West is a really good teacher. Class is pretty laid back and she uses power points to focus your attention. It was an interesting course, but I'm not sure how helpful it would be if you're not interested in going into this field.	Feb 23, 2012 2:52 PM
3	A Powerpoint class. You know the kind.	Feb 13, 2012 8:20 AM
4	Prof. West is extremely interested and passionate about the material, and the course is very interesting.	Feb 12, 2012 1:27 PM
5	Great class! West is awesome	Feb 6, 2012 3:35 PM
6	The exam also contains multiple choice questions as well as essays. Participation can influence your grade slightly. This was a really interesting class, as far as subject matter, my favorite in law school so far. She does call on a couple people a day but she is nice with her questioning and she also asks for and appreciates volunteers.	Feb 6, 2012 3:30 PM
7	The multiple choice questions on the final were horrible. Rather than asking conceptual questions, some of them were very specific. Take detailed notes.	Feb 6, 2012 1:58 PM
8	Professor West is a great professor and media law is really interesting. Its similar to Con Law II so it helps if you've taken that/are taking that class.	Feb 6, 2012 10:50 AM
9	Professor West is the best possible person to convey this material and is very fair. She makes class very enjoyable and shares real-world examples and anecdotes to really drive home particular points.	Feb 6, 2012 10:11 AM
10	West knows this area of law really well. If you have an interest, it's a great class to take. She calls on 3-4 students per class and sticks with them the whole time.	Feb 6, 2012 9:54 AM
11	The exam was part multiple-choice and part limited-space examination. If you took Professor West for Con Law, then the test is basically the same style. This class focuses on First Amendment issues. It might not be useful unless one goes into the media law field, but it is still interesting.	Feb 6, 2012 9:47 AM
