PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

University of Georgia School of Law—Athens, Georgia 2020—Present

Staff Attorney and Adjunct Clinical Instructor

Community Health Law Partnership Clinic

Alongside the Clinic's Director, supervise law students as they engage in a variety of interdisciplinary services focused on the intersection of immigration status and health, including direct client representation in affirmative and defensive immigration proceedings, federal litigation, and project-based advocacy. Assist the Clinic's Director in teaching seminar. Manage the clinic's docket and assume primary responsibility for casework that exceeds student capacity. Contributed to the "Irwin County Detention Center Project" which won the 2021 Clinical Legal Education Association Award for Excellence in a Public Interest Case or Project.

Adjunct Instructor

Instruct Legal Spanish I, Legal Spanish II, and Legal System of the United States.

Socheat Chea, P.C.—Duluth, Georgia 2019—2020

Associate Attorney

Represented noncitizens in removal defense matters before the Executive Office for Immigration Review; including asylum, bonds, cancellation of removal, adjustments in court, and motions; drafted appeals to the Board of Immigration Appeals and the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals; drafted mandamus complaints to the Northern and Middle Districts of Georgia; and represented individuals in affirmative matters before USCIS, including family petitions, adjustments of status, waivers, naturalization, U petitions, U adjustments, VAWAs, and I-751s. Represented clients at hearings, check ins, and interviews before immigration agencies located throughout the southern US.

Latin American Association—Atlanta, Georgia

2017—2019

Staff Attorney

Represented low-income, noncitizen clients in petitions for special immigrant juvenile status, asylum, cancellation of removal, U and T petitions and adjustments, naturalization, family petitions, consular processing, adjustment of status, and other related relief. Represented clients in hearings and interviews before immigration agencies in Georgia and Alabama. Organized and participated in citizenship drives in collaboration with other nonprofit organizations. Conducted Know Your Rights presentations in English and Spanish. Provided supervision and support to new attorneys, DOJ accredited representatives, paralegals, administrative staff, and interns.

Northwest Immigrant Rights Project—Seattle, Washington

2014—2017

Staff Attorney, VAWA Unit

Managed high volume caseload with a focus on humanitarian relief for survivors of violence, including U and T petitions and adjustments, VAWA petitions, I-751 petitions, cancellation of removal, and asylum. Represented clients in hearings and interviews in Washington and Oregon. Worked in close partnership with domestic violence agencies. Provided training and support to community partners and the public. Trained volunteer attorneys and law students as part of a pro bono collaboration project designed to increase representation of noncitizen survivors of crime. Provided supervision and support to new attorneys, DOJ accredited representatives, legal advocates, and interns.

Mid-Minnesota Legal Aid—Willmar, Minnesota

2013—2014

Staff Attorney

Practice was divided between immigration and family law matters. Immigration representation primarily consisted of refugee adjustments, citizenship, DACA, U petitions, and family petitions. Family representation was limited to divorce, child custody, and special findings for special immigrant juvenile status. Represented clients before state courts and administrative agencies throughout Minnesota. Provided advice and brief services on housing and consumer law issues.

Immigrant Law Center of Minnesota—Saint Paul, Minnesota

2011—2013

Law Clerk

Primarily assisted crime survivors with applications for humanitarian relief. Helped train new interns, including the development of materials to facilitate interns' work, and assisted with community events for naturalization and DACA. Recipient of ILCM's 2013 "Volunteer of the Year" Award.
